NOTES

BE BOP Here is a really nice horse, I've been riding him for a couple years, and he just gets better with every ride. He's pretty, gentle, and really cowy. He's had all aspects of ranch work done on him. From dragging calves to doctoring yearlings, and he is patterned up on heel dummy. Jeff Kanaday has heeled some out of the heel box and is doing real good. He will have more roped on him by sale day. He is eligible for the Riata Buckle, Gold Buckle and Royal Crown futurities. He will be a nice horse to go with in any direction. He is good about his feet. Come look if interested.

NOTES

Born and raised on the ranch, "Stranger" has been in Bill Angell's string since he was 3. This pretty 15h, 1200lb red roan has been my go-to horse for the last four years. The one to catch on shipping day or going to drag. He has sorted hundreds of cattle out of the herd, stripped and drug claves with ease. He is cowy with lots of feel, he is the true meaning of a top ranch horse. He has been hauled to jackpots as a head and heel horse and used at ranch rodeos. My youngest son has showed him in 4-H and has used him in youth ranch rodeos. 100% gentle, but when you ask him for something he gives you every bit of it. He will be missed on our outfit.

Be sure to take a look at this solid gelding by Fletch That Cat, who has Royal Crown Roping incentive and several others. Skid Steer is as gentle as a puppy dog, and stays in your pocket. He will gladly do whatever you ask of him all day long. This gelding has experience outside doctoring cattle, as well in the pens sorting cattle. With so much potential as a four year old, you can take him and mold him into whatever you desire.

NOTES

Here is one you have been wearing out your pickup and searching Facebook nonstop trying to find!!! Taz is BROKE, HANDSOME, and GENTLE! He is truly one of the most enjoyable horses we have ever had the privilege of owning. Taz is a beautiful bay gelding. He stands 15 hands and has a heart the size of Texas. Step up to the fence and really pay attention to Taz. He will watch a cow, turn around, lope beautiful circles, and drag his butt. Taz is 100% safe to ranch on, no matter your level of experience. Gathering cattle, dragging calves, sorting pairs, he is my go to horse no matter the situation. Taz is a money earner from the NRCHA to the team roping. He's a different kind of special! I like to compare Taz to a souped up luxury car. He has all of the power you can ask for yet is smooth and easy handling. I have won on Taz all over the country team roping. Taz is safe, you can leave him off for months get back on him and he will be the exact same horse as you left him. Taz is one that you will be proud to own. We encourage any interested buyers to come give him a try. We also welcome buyers to arrange pre-purchase exams. Feel free to call us anytime. Chili stands 15.1 weighs 1250. There is not much Chili has not done on the ranch, he's dependable every time you catch him. He has been with Waylon Davis since he was a 3 year old, he's been hauled to team roping jackpots as well as World Series team ropings from the #13 to #11. He has also been to the Riata Buckle team roping. He has mainly been hauled as a head horse but you can heel on him as well. We've broke in hundreds of steers on him, drug lots of calves and doctored a lot of yearlings on the wheat field. Chili has a lot of run, he's easy to rope on, breaks flat and is good in the box. 100% Sound.

We have used Big Jake to do every job possible on a ranch. He has been used on wheat to doctor yearlings. He has drug his fair share to the fire. He has been started in both the heading and heeling. This horse could go in many different directions. Take him to the roping pen or just keep ranching on him. He can be a little watchy on the ground but absolutely no buck. Dodger has worked for a living his whole life. Gathered big, rough pastures, worked the gate stripping cows off, sorted yearlings down the alley, cut out drys, roped outside on him and drug stuff in the trailer, drug calves. About ready to take to a team roping heading on him. Scores well and leaves off your hand, can run, stands up coming out of the hole and can really face. I'm not a team roper so help yourself. Old man gentle (for the old man that's been riding him), but hasn't had any kids on him.

He works the gate and herd very well and has caught quite a few wild cattle. Jethro will really work a cow and is an outstanding team roping horse, both ends. He has been hauled and won money. Jethro is gentle enough for anyone from our nine-year-old daughter to a 75-year-old cowboy. Easy to shoe and catch. He is good out in the remuda or kept up in a stall. Angell Ranch owns several large cattle ranches across New Mexico & one in Tx. Our horse division is based in Guthrie, Tx where we run a remuda of 15 mares & have a resident stallion Bakers Boon a son of Once In A Blu Boon. We have worked hard at putting together a select group of cow & running bred mares which include daughters of Playgun, Playin Stylish, Big Cat Galarraga, Ten O Sea, Doctor Echo and Brimmerton. Along with breeding to our stud we also feel it necessary to breed to outside stallions to continue improving the quality of our horses. Some of these include Natural Bottom, CD Son of Magnolia & Jesses Topaz. Our main goal is to raise stout, good minded, cow horses that the cowboys working on our ranches & others can use for everyday ranch work to showing in the arena.

Electra, Texas
Johnny Miller • (940) 733-4814

Our family has ranched in Wichita County for over 140 years. We have always used horses to get our work done. I'm an old school guy, so we still do our work horseback. We don't have a trainer, and I can't train a lion to eat meat, so we just trot 'em. I am not cowboy enough to get anything done on a fresh horse. Horses carrying our brand have competed at the highest level. Ranch rodeos where some were picked as "top horse". They have been to team ropings, calf ropings & barrels races. They have had money won on them at the B.F.I., multiple horses ridden at the National Finals Steer Roping, and the Timed Event Championship. Our philosophy on selling horses is simple. Cheap, good & fast; pick any two. If you want it cheap & fast, it won't be any good. If you want it cheap and good, it won't be fast. If you want it good and fast, it sure ain't going to be cheap.

Our goal is to raise a sizable horse of substance, stamina and a sound mind that still has the athletic ability of a smaller performance horse. We want to be able to market our horses to everyone from the working cowboy to the ropers to the cow horse family! We have been very blessed to make these horses such a large part of our livelihood and continue to always improve and pass forward this part of our heritage!

The land that makes up the Tule Ranch is currently owned by Billy and Bette Cogdell's children (Penny, Rank, Dick and Jim Cogdell), with each operating their own portion of the ranch. In addition, some members of the fourth-generation lease parts of the ranch for their own operations. Even though there are several family units conducting business within the Tule Ranch border, we have the unique blessing of helping each other, so much so, that there is very little need for any outside labor. Today the broodmare band reflects the Cogdell's interest in the cutting arena, as well as in ranch horses, because to the Cogdell family they are one in the same. The primary goal of the Tule Ranch remuda program is to produce good quality, versatile ranch horses with the ability and breeding to also compete in the arena. This has cumulated in two NCHA Open Futurity wins (1978 & 1999) and being selected as an AQHA Best of The Remuda Award recipient (2006).

“NEXT MAN” MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Tye, Texas
Casey Armstrong • (325) 665-4194

Boone Askew, the son of Shawn and Angela Askew, was raised in Albany and Comanche, Texas. Boone was called home at just 17 years old. From an early age, he knew his purpose in life was to be a cowboy. He worked on several respected ranches including Guitars, 6666 Dixon Creek, Gibson Ranches, the Byrds, the Nail, the Spires, Big Creek, Turkey Tracks, the Crutch, the Sanford Ranch, Plemmons Land and Cattle, PICO Ranches, and the Bowers. As Boone began forging his own path, he dreamed of breeding and raising his own line of ranch horses. Three mares he purchased from TJ Roberts while working at the Spires Ranch are now managed by Scorpion Horse Company and his uncle, Casey Armstrong, in Tye, Texas. Boone’s family continues his legacy through The Boone Askew “Next Man” Memorial Scholarship. Proceeds from the colt being sold will support a deserving recipient next year. “Next Man” reflects how Boone lived – helping others, giving sacrificially, and answering God’s call. When you hear Him holler, holler back. For more information and a link to the scholarship application visit the sale website: www.whcranchhorsesale.com
